Shamo, Betty Cox, Winell Bracken and Marlene Larkin. All are members of the Fair Display Board. Bracken is from Enterprise, Page, Cox and Larkin are from St. George, and Shamo is from Hurricane.

HURRICANE — City Fun carnival midway is taking shape, preparing to open tonight to kick off the Washington County Fair. The thrill rides are located behind the vocational arts building of Hurricane High School.
