Special Collections and Archives

Special Collections and Archives, in keeping with its mission and vision, contains selected local, family, and historical materials about the geographically contiguous areas of Washington County, the Arizona Strip, and the Big Muddy region of Nevada, as well as materials documenting the history of Dixie State University. The collection may contain materials or ephemera that are out-of-print; need special handling; or that may be irreplaceable, fragile, rare, etc. Special Collections materials may not be checked out and must be used under supervision in the Special Collections Reading Room.

The Special Collections Librarian and Archivist Kathleen Broeder is responsible for the management and maintenance of the collections. If you are interested in donating items or funds to the DSU Special Collections and Archives, please consult the accessions policy before contacting the librarian at 435-652-7718 or kathleen.broeder@dixie.edu.
