President David H. Cannon,
St. George, Washington Co.

My Dear Brother David:-

I deposited on 9th inst. I enclose a receipt for $50 in addition to the $40 I sent you before. I, having it, preferred depositing it, to keeping it, which gives you something to work on in case you desire to get more. I want you need it, all, before the time specified, by you, I can get it you. All you have to do is to let me know. Dur-at Omaha, on 11th inst.
nephew Brigham, married the Catholic girl and is now on the ocean, headed for Europe.

I had a serious talk with him, the day he left and expressed my regrets at the course he is pursuing. I am told Frank was the only one of his relatives who attended. Our niece, Grace asked me to write her, to Brother Clarence Keelin, on the 26th inst., which I promised to do conditioned nothing, serious, preventing me from doing so. Wadsworth is here in the office and when I asked him if he had any word to send you, - he said, tell him I am well and feel all right.

David, I can't banish the gloom that enshrouds my heart. I try to feel right but cannot describe what I feel. It appears like a spell, is over me, that I cannot escape from. I called on for Smith, on 12th inst., at 10:30 A.M. and talked until 1:45 when Frederick said: - we insist upon you breaking bread with us, before you go. Hence I stayed. He asked his father to ask a blessing! I enjoyed great freedom, in conversing. After all our talk, which was quite spirited, he said: - "I am open to conviction," when I replied: - As the old Scotchman said, - "but damn the man that can convert me." He said that reflects upon my honesty. I said, no it is a compliment to the Scotchman. My conclusion is: - He has determined to stand by his mother, in support of his faith, in early life, but repudiate every thing that his father did, of which his mother did not approve. His mother, has succeeded in bringing him to support her views repudiating every thing that the world does not applaud. With love, I am, Affectionately
